FORD'S THEATER .- Mr. J. S. Clarke has been re-engaged for two nights more, and will produce Shakspeare's comedy, "Two Gentlemen of Verona," Mr. Clarke appearing as "Lannee." On this occasion he will be supported by Miss Susan Denin and other favorite actors and actresses. The entertainment will conclude with the amusing farce "Love in Livery," Clarke appearing as "Paul Pa-

CANTERBURY .- M'lle Marietta Ravel, Mons Baptistin, John Mulligan, Billy West, H. W. Williams, J. J. Dougherty, J. De Forrest, W. B. Cavanaugh, and eighteen pretty girls, composing the Ronzani ballet trenpe, will all appear at this hall every night this week, and to-night the great local drama, "The Bush-whackers of the Potomac," will be performed. FAIRS AND FESTIVALS .- The ladies of Grace Church, Island, will commence a splendid fair and festival at Island Hall to night, and will have for sale a great variety of useful and fancy articles, which will be disposed of by the pretty and agreeable ladies connected with the church. It will undoubtedly be the most interesting affair of the sort ever held in the

At Odd Fellows' Hall, the delightful fair for the benefit of the home for friendless women and children will be continued throughout the present week.

LEVY COURT .- An adjourned meeting of the Levy Court was held on Wednesday, at the City Hall, all the members being present.

Mr. Burr reported names of the several roads in the county, as follows, which were adopted, and also the amount of annual appropriation for each road :

First District.-Road from 7th street, in Georgetown, to the canal at the Stone House, to be called 7th street road, with an appropriation of $1650, from canal, near Cook's Brewery, to intersect 7th street road, "Foxhall Road," $150; from 7th street road to Loughborough road, "Ridge Road," $100; from Falls Briege west to Rockville pike, near Tenallytown, "Loughborough Road," $50; from Ten-allytown west to the District line, "River Road, $50. Second District.-East from Rockville pike to

Rock Creek, "Busey Road," $300; east from Rockville pike to Pierce's Mill, "Pierce's Mill Road." $50; from Tenallytown to Broad Branch, "Tenallytown Road;" from Tenally. town pike north to District line, "Belt Road," $200; from Pierce's to Blagden's Mill, "Blagden's Mill Road," $100; from Blagden's Mill road to Milk House Ford road, "Broad Branch Road," $1,300; from Broad Branch to Milk House Ford road, "Swartz Road;" from 7th street pike to the District line, "Milk House Ford Road," $50. Third District.-From Boundary and 21st streets to Piney Branch Road, "Little Road," $200; from Little Road, by Estin's, to Piney Branch Road, "Walbridge Road;" from Pierce's Mill east to 7th street pike, "Linean Hill Road, '$60; from 14th and Boundary to its intersection with the 7th street pike, "Piney Branch Road," $1,000; from Blagden's Mill to Piney Branch Road, "Blagden Mill Road,"

Fourth District.-East from 7th street pike to District line, "Rock Creek Church Road," $1,000; from last-named road to 7th street pike, at Brightwood, "Ray Road;" from 7th street pike to Rock Creek Church Road, between Walker's and Saunders', "Walker Road;" from 7th street pike to Walker Road, near McChesney's, "Morrison Road;" from Rock Creek Church Road to Sargent Road, "Bates Road," $50; from Bunker Hill Road, at Tucker's, to District line, "Sargent Road," $400.

Fifth District.-From North Capitol and Boundary streets to Rock Creek, "Lincoln Avenue," $1,000; from Lincoln Avenue to Middleton's gate, "Bunker Hill Road," $500; from Baltimore pike, by Queen's Chapel, to District line, "Queen's Chapel Road," $100; from Delaware avenue and Boundary street to District line, "Old Bladensburg Road," $600; from 1st Tollgate on Baltimore p'te and Boundary street to Benning's Bridge, "Benning's Bridge Road," $100; from Benning's Bridge Road to Boundary street, by Cool Spring, "Cool Spring Road," $200

The report was adopted, and the appropriations made. [It will be observed that the committee have appropriately named all the roads in the county and that the appropriation in each district equal are being $2,000 for each school district.]

Mr. Blagden submitted an ordinance, to prevent bathing in exposed places in the county, imposing a penalty of a fine of two dollars for each offence or in default ten days imprisonment in jail, which was passed.

Walter Smith was appointed supervisor for First School District, and John E. Chapel for Second School District.

Dr. Nichols reported that at least half of the taxes due by J. F. Smith should be remitted on account of the depredations of troops, and the deduction was ordered to be made.

THE WILEY-BROWN CASE .- In the Circuit Court this morning before Judge Wylie, the tr.al of the case of Emily F. Wiley vs Marshall Brown and Jesse B. Haw, administrators of the estate of Tilottson P. Brown, deceased, was resumed. Mr Davidge opened the case for the defence, and stated that they fully expected to prove that Mr. T. P. Brown was not the father of Emily F. Wiley, and that he never acknowledged such to be the fact. They expected also to faisify many of the statements made by Mrs. Brown, and to show that instead of being a virtuous young girl when she came first to Washington, she was at that time and had been previously living upon the town, and that Tillottson Brown was at that time a boy at school, and that if there was any seduction, it was the boy who was seduced by Mrs. Brown. The defence also expected to prove that Mrs. Brown had been kept by Dr. Miller, of Baltimore, Mr. White, of Kentucky, and others, and that her criminal intercourse with these parties extended through a number or years. Mr. William Dalton was first sworn .- Is and has been a back driver. Remembers of a boarding-house kept by Mrs. Dodd, and Mrs. Brown boarded there, and witness often took her out driving. This was about the year 1834, and Mrs. Brown at that time had a small child, which she took out driving with her. Witness remembers Col. Larned.

Mr. Davidge here desired to prove by witness that Col. Larned was in the habit of driving out with Mrs. Brown about this time; but the question was objected to by the plaintiff, and the witness was withdrawn.

AN APPLICATED FAMILY .- On Friday morning last, just before Mrs Tippett, one of the unfortunate females who perished by the explosion at the Arsenal, went to work, she was apprised of the fact that her husband, a private in the 1st regiment D. C. leavairy, had been wounded in one of the battles on the Peninsuin. On Friday night, a few hours after the ac-cident, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Tippett's mother, was plunged into yet deeper grief by receiving information of the death of her son-in-law. By these sad casualties three or four very young children are left to the support of their grandmother, who is a poor woman, and lives by

SUDDEN DEATH OF AN OFFICER .- Yesterday, Lieutenant Barnum, of the 11th Connecticut volunteers, who was wounded in one of the battles of the late campaign under Grant, and who had his leg amputated, died at the United States Hotel from the effects of a secondary hemorrhage. The death was rather sudden, as the Lieutenant was progressing finely in the morning, and was in a comparatively healthy condition, and in response to inquiries of friends stated that he felt first-rate, and believed he had a fair prospect of recovery. Half an hour thereafter he was a corpse, one of the ligatures naving broken, and in a few moments he died. His body will be embalmed by

Dr. Holmes preparatory to being sent North. MAZEPPA.—This charming, popular and thrilling Oriental pageant will be produced tonight at Grover's Theater in magnificent style, Miss Kate Vauce, the beautiful young eques-trienne, sustaining the duplet role of Cassimir and Mazeppa, and exhibiting wonderful feats of equestrianism on her trained steed "Don Juan." Messrs. Myron, Koche, Kames, Chapman, Sheldon, Clarke, Miss Annie Ward, Mrs. Myron, and the entire company appearing in her support

PERJURY CASE DISMISSED .- Saturday, the case of Elizabeth Shorter, for false swearing, in the case of William F. Pruitt, was taken up by Justice Kinsey. Mr. Pruitt, in considera-tion of the fact that she is already bound for court for grand larceny, asked that this case be dismissed, which was done.

WATER REGISTRAR'S OFFICE,

JUNE 18, 1864.

The Mayor of Washington is this day informed by the Engineer of the Washington Aqueduct that "the supply of water from the Aqueduct is ample, if judiciously applied, to keep the streets quite free from dust. They can not only be sprinkled, but showered, if necessary, three or four times each day, by means of private street plugs or carts, during the dry summer season."

Public Notice, therefore, is hereby given, that the restrictions heretofore imposed upon the use of hand bose for watering the streets are, for the present, removed. By direction of the Mayor.
